

Referring to the Works of Others in Your Text

Reference citations in text are covered on pages 207-214 of the follows are some general guidelines for referring to the works of others in your text.

What

When using APA format, follow the author-date method of in-text citation. This means that the author's last name and the year of publication for the source should appear in the text, and a complete reference should appear in the reference list at the end of the paper.

If you are referring to an idea from another work but NOT directly quoting the material, or making reference to an entire book, article or other work, you only have to make reference to the author and year of publication in your in-
