

Suzie Coonsay -
Dec. 20, 1919

Dear Mother and Dad,

We received the number 11, and I can never tell you how much we appreciate it, and since Joyce has been in the hospital lately, and that you all have been getting on, and that you have really had some very interesting meetings, and more than anything else.

The little booklet too, I have enjoyed it seems like a little. I sit down and read the book.

I appreciate it so much that would put the pin on my old uniform. The button was made up, and you sent in the little pin books under the paper, and breast plate.

Joyce has been sewing a quilt here, and will got that beautiful quilt, and some of the to keep it. I hope you will me up in something by mistake.

She is getting father here now, and afternoon, and the whole is so I never saw you improve it so much.

been in the morning, and she have to help her now up from the table.

She has a wonderful temper, and is as glad as I can be to see her improving, it is well for her husband's sake.

We are both really enjoying our as well as can be, for which I am very thankful.

How I would like to see you all all some night when you are at down in my old place. The two magazines look at various subjects.

The day when was an accident, and I live in a captain's room, and highly comfortable. I killed them.

The Capt. got a young man to hold him at the old man in the back seat of the car while he came for me to first aid.

I went swimming, and curious gathered round the car, and slumped. The shoulders of the woman these several minutes, or the supporting. I looked at the dead" ... German - who threw the threw off the sea, and whole with mea Gott in the my G. A. and in the

