

Coblenz

June 27, 1920

Dear Mother Will,

Joyce is so lazy that she can't hardly sit up, much less write to anyone so I am writing you reasoning to say hello and to tell you about her.

She's almost as lazy as you, or forgetting to the day eats like a whole of pigs and sleep

not coming.

Really, I don't believe you will know how well I feel home, for I have never been here so far and I am very "ill" are you in London? long, just when I can't see for it depends "gates" on how soon a replacement can be gotten from the States.
I am anxious to get home, for I am going to resign from the Army and go to work Listen, I hope to get away from home about the middle of next of July as that I agree with I can get no subject and I will give you the spectacle of seeing a boy almost kiss his mother with rings kisses for & was so hungry to see my reaction, I think I can hardly wait.

Having "I miss" getting along I am quite a bit better than be quite a bit better than Please give Ellsworth and Nellie my love and my best regards to the Tell Clem that I love her in her house in a dangerous place to sit it is a man" for he will certainly make his saying "I didn't not careful, my keep two testimonies on its surface there is a living testimonial with it

Be good and don't go around with any of etc for we can't trust stand for that sort of shininess with much love your devoted son

Arthur